

Maire provides a personal made to measure bespoke service with garments made to best flatter the client's particular silhouette and individual taste. She uses luxury Italian and French fabrics, also available in a wide range of colours.

The theme throughout the collection is structured sculpt shaped dresses with asymmetrical style lines. Details include exaggerated raised shoulders, exaggerated peplums, split sleeve detail, waterfall detail and double layered effect. These softly angled asymmetrical lines break up the body in flattering ways to enhance the figure. These strong bold shapes are most effective with the use of a solid colour blocks.

The collection can be viewed by appointment at her studio in 58 Fitzwilliam Square, Dublin 2.
